Summary

Marketer turned product manager. I combine customer research and small experiments to improve onboarding and activation, and I mentor others who are changing careers.

Experience

Associate Product Manager, Brightpath Health | Apr 2023 - present

- Own onboarding for a wellness app used by 80,000 people.
- Mapped where new users dropped off, ran five small experiments, and worked with design and engineering to ship a redesign.
- Lifted activation by 18% in one quarter.

Marketing Manager, Fernway Outdoor Co. | Sep 2021 - Mar 2023

- Led a brand refresh and managed a team of three.
- Interviewed 25 customers, wrote the new positioning, and ran weekly check-ins with the team.
- Launched on schedule; repeat purchases rose 12% the following quarter.

Marketing Coordinator, Fernway Outdoor Co. | Jul 2019 - Aug 2021

- Ran the email programme and weekly reporting for an outdoor gear retailer.
- Segmented the customer list, ran A/B tests on subject lines, and built a one-page weekly dashboard.
- Raised email open rates from 21% to 34%; the dashboard became the team's Monday meeting.

Projects and side ventures

Habit tracker built with no-code tools | Feb 2022 - Sep 2022

- Built and launched a simple habit-tracking app for friends. Held weekly calls with early users. 300 sign-ups and 40 weekly active users after six months.

Hand-printed tote bag shop | Mar 2018 - Jun 2019

- Designed, printed and sold tote bags online. Tested three price points and learned product photography. About $6,400 in revenue and a repeat-customer rate near 25%.

Volunteering and community

Mentor for career changers, local meetup | Jan 2024 - present

- Give monthly one-to-one advice to people moving into product. Mentored 14 people; three have since moved into product roles.

Volunteer scheduler, Eastside Food Bank | Jun 2017 - Aug 2019

- Replaced a paper sign-up sheet with a shared spreadsheet and reminder texts. Cut no-shows by about 30%.

Host, weekly campus podcast, Larkfield Campus Radio | Jan 2016 - Dec 2018

- Created and hosted a weekly interview show about student startups. Grew to 1,200 weekly listeners and 60 episodes.
